1. Start

This course is built around the priorities below — the grammar and vocabulary areas that make the biggest difference to how clearly and confidently you communicate in English.

1. Grammar: present, past and future tenses (simple, continuous, passive, perfect)
2. Prepositions: at, in, on, about, for, by, with
3. Adverbs: words ending in “ly” that usually describe how an action is done
4. Comparison adjectives: six types (equality, inequality, comparative, superlative...)
5. Possessives: 's / s' and possessive pronouns (mine, yours, theirs, his, hers)
6. Linking words: to connect ideas clearly (see the Linking Words chapter)
7. The gerund ing form: as a noun and after prepositions
8. Verbs \(V3\) that become adjectives, and nouns that act as adjectives
9. Modal verbs: can, could, would, should, must, may, might
10. Professional / workplace verbs and vocabulary — see Appendix J — Extended Professional Words Table + Bonus practice ideas!
11. At B1/B2 level you must be able to easily provide synonyms: for verbs, adjectives, adverbs, linking words and nouns.

2. Grammar: Tenses

In a professional workplace, I only recommend the below grammar to be used:

SIMPLE
	PRESENT		PAST
	Action in the present taking place regularly , never or several times.		Focus is on the action , not on the person/door.
	A: He speaks . N: He doesn't speak. Q: Does he speak? Q-: Doesn't he speak? Does he not speak?		A: The task was done. N: The task was not / wasn't done. Q: Was the task done? Q-: Wasn't the task done? Was the task not done?
	A: He is here/good/German. N: He isn't here/good/German. Q: Is he here? Q-: Isn't he German? Is he not here? Aren't they here yet? Are they not here yet?		A: He was speaking. N: He was not / wasn't speaking. Q: Was he speaking? Q-: Wasn't he speaking? Was he not speaking?
	SIMPLE PASSIVE		CONTINUOUS
	Focus is on the action , not on the person/door.		Action taking place now that takes time .
	A: The task is done. N: The task is not / isn't done. Q: Is the task done? Q-: Isn't the contract signed? Is the contract not signed yet?		A: He is speaking. N: He is not / isn't speaking. Q: Is he speaking? Q-: Isn't he speaking? Are they not speaking?
	A: He is speaking. N: He isn't speaking. Q: Is he speaking? Q-: Isn't he speaking? Are they not speaking?		A: He has spoken. N: He hasn't spoken. Q: Has he spoken? Q-: Hasn't he spoken? Has he not spoken? Have they not spoken?
	PERFECT		PERFECT CONTINUOUS
	Finished action that has an influence on the present .		Action that started in the past and it continues now .
	A: He has spoken. N: He hasn't spoken. Q: Has he spoken? Q-: Hasn't he spoken? Has he not spoken? Have they not spoken?		A: He has been speaking. N: He hasn't been speaking. Q: Has he been speaking? Q-: Hasn't he been speaking? Has he not been speaking? Have they not been talking?
	A: He has spoken. N: He hasn't spoken. Q: Has he spoken? Q-: Hasn't he spoken? Has he not spoken? Have they not spoken?		A: He has been speaking. N: He hasn't been speaking. Q: Has he been speaking? Q-: Hasn't he been speaking? Has he not been speaking? Have they not been talking?

3. Prepositions

Prepositions link nouns, pronouns or gerunds to the rest of the sentence. The three most common are at, in and on, used for time and place.

We arrived at the station at 6 p.m. (precise time / point)

She was born in 1990 and lives in London. (year / city — larger area)

The meeting is on Monday, on the 5th floor. (day / surface)
